

RULE BOOK

12 NOVEMBER 2015

WYCOMBE PHOTGRAPHIC SOCIETY (WPS) came into being as the result of a letter⁽¹⁾ from Mr. Edward (Ted) F. Harman (1908-2006) published in the Bucks Free Press on 19th August 1938 which invited people interested in forming a camera club in the town to get in touch with him. About twenty people responded and at a meeting on 1st September 1938 the High Wycombe and District Camera Club was formed.

The name was subsequently changed to High Wycombe Camera Club, and then in 2006, to reflect its catchment and changes in technology, the name was again changed to Wycombe Photographic Society.

Today WPS embraces all types of photography, digital or traditional film still-prints plus projected digital images either in colour and/or monochrome, along with audio visual sequences.

WPS's activities include:

- In-house print & projected competitions judged by visiting experts;
- External competitions with other clubs and societies;
- Talks given by visiting speakers;
- Outings to local and further afield places of photographic interest;
- An annual exhibition during Wycombe Arts Festival;
- Social events.

We also run Digital Imaging group-sessions exploring ways of improving images using computer based techniques.

WPS is active within the Chiltern Association of Camera Clubs (CACC), and through this Association is affiliated to the Photographic Alliance of Great Britain (PAGB). The Society is also a member of the Federation of North West London Photographic Societies.

15. In the event of the suspension of activities or dissolution of WPS, all surplus monies after settlement of all liabilities and any property including any receivables of WPS shall be lodged with the President, Secretary and Treasurer of WPS at the time of its suspension.
